

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

VOL XXII.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, AUGUST 3, 1900.

NO. 62

Our Shoe Business

Will Last as Long as Children
Are Born Without Shoes.

But the prices we are offering during our Cut Sale, now on, will not last so long. Remember we are giving

A Discount of 10 Per Cent.

On the whole stock, besides we have hundreds and hundreds of shoes that we are selling at

One-Fourth, One-Third and Even One-Half Off

Of regular prices. Our sale runs 'till August 10th, and it is to your advantage to make use of it.

J. H. ANDERSON & CO.

THIS IS THE TIME!

Queen Quality
OXFORDS

Light and Graceful.

A Cool and Comfortable Oxford is most appropriate

Those who wear Queen Quality Oxfords will tell you they are stylish and fit when others fail. All styles and one low price $2.50.

BENNETT & QUARLES.

Look for the Big Boot.

HEARD FROM

Ministers Alive and In Fairly Good Shape.

Allies With 17000 Men Begin The Advance From Tien Tsin To Pekin, 80 Miles.

Washington, Aug. 2.—The allies with 17,000 men began the advance to Pekin yesterday. The Americans, British and Japanese are in the lead. Reinforcements are arriving daily at Tien Tsin, their base of supplies.

First Direct News.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—A cable dispatch to the Daily News from Chefoo, July 31, via Shanghai, August 1, says:

Dr. Robert Colman, Jr., the staff correspondent of the Chicago Record in Pekin, who has not been heard from since June 12, sends the following dispatch:

"Pekin, July 21.—Baron Von Ketteler, the German Minister, was murdered by Chinese troops, and his secretary was wounded June 20, while on his way to the Tsung-Li-Yamen. The foreign residents are besieged in the British legation, and have been under a daily fire from artillery and rifles.

"The cowardice of the Chinese fortunately prevented them from making successful rushes. Our losses are sixty killed and seventy wounded. The Chinese losses exceed 1,000.

"There has been no word from the outside world. Food is plentiful, such as it is—rice and horse-flesh. Yesterday, under a flag of truce, a message was sent by Yung Lu asking if Sir Claude Macdonald, the British Minister, would consent to a truce. The Minister replied that he was willing provided the Chinese came no closer. The shell firing then ceased and everything is now quiet.

"We now hope that, having defeated the Chinese, relief is nearing us. We are all exhausted with constant standing on guard, fighting, building barricades and digging trenches both night and day.

"All the legations except the British are utterly wrecked by shot and shell. The Austrian, Italian, Belgian and Holland buildings are burned to the ground. The British legation is also much shattered. The United States marines still hold a vital position on the city wall commanding the legations.

"After a brilliant sortie on the night of July 3 Capt. Myers succeeded in driving back the Kansuh mounted troops. During the fight Capt. Myers was slightly wounded. Secretary Squiers, of the United States legation, deserves the greatest credit for his service throughout the siege. His military experience and energy are invaluable. Many flags and rifles were captured by Capt. Myers.

"We fear that treachery is possible when the defeated Chinese troops enter the city. Meanwhile we are living in intense anxiety and hoping for early relief."

SLASHED HIS ARM.

Bailey Monk Cut by U. E. Ratcliffe, at a Sale.

P. B. Monk, administrator of Lucy Sizemore, had a sale near Crofton yesterday and U. E. Ratcliffe, a nephew of Monk, who was present, raised a disturbance with the administrator over some article being sold and assaulted Monk with a knife. He made a vicious attack and cut him on the arm, making a six inch gash, before bystanders could interfere and pull Ratcliffe away. Monk swore out a warrant for his arrest yesterday evening, which had not been served when we went to press.

Messrs. Evans, Whitfield and Smith, of Nashville, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hargraves, on East Seventh street.

POWERS TALKS.

Completes His Carefully Prepared Story Wednesday.

Golden's Brother-in-Law Admits
He Tried To Bribe The Commonwealth's Witness.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 2.—The cross-examination of Caleb Powers was finished yesterday afternoon shortly before 2 o'clock and the prisoner, tired and worn, left the witness stand, after having undergone an ordeal of rigid questioning since Monday morning. Powers was apparently well pleased with the impression he had made and walked to his seat with rapid strides. A broad smile was on his face and he received nods from his attorneys which indicated that they were satisfied with the result of the cross-examination.

After the cross-examination of Powers was concluded, after calling Wharton Golden for the purpose of asking one question, his brother-in-law, the Rev. John Stamper, was introduced for the purpose of impeaching Golden. The witness was hard pressed on cross-examination. He swore that Golden had said he could get $5,000 to testify, and admitted that he (Stamper) had offered Golden $5,000 not to testify, but to leave the State. Powers denied many denials of statements witnesses had attributed to him, but a number of points of greater or less importance were not cleared up. Powers went flatly on record as opposed to the secret assembling of militia under guise of petitioners, but wanted Taylor to surround himself with militia and defy all civil law until the courts of last resort had acted on the contest.

Yesterday morning George Franklin Weaver, the barber, who claimed that he saw Goebel shot from Caleb Powers' office, was arrested on a warrant charging him with perjury.

Weaver is regarded as a crank, and it is thought he told his story simply in order to gain notoriety. The attorneys for the prosecution had never heard of him until he sent word that he could throw light on the mystery surrounding the assassination of Gov. Goebel. He tells an improbable tale about having been on the battleship Oregon during the Spanish-American war, yet he can tell nothing of the ship, of her crew, or of the part the vessel played in the war. One day he claims to be a barber, the next day he represents himself as an attorney, and now says that he is a newspaper man.

SAM EMBRY DEAD.

Well Known Citizen of Herndon, a Victim of Consumption.

Col. Samuel F. Embry died of consumption last Monday evening, at his home near Herndon. He had been in a declining condition for some months and his death did not come unexpectedly.

Col. Embry was 53 years of age and had long been one of the most prominent citizens of South Christian. Until recently his home was at Howell, but he was widely known in all portions of the county, and had many warm friends in this city. In fact he had more than a local reputation, as he gained a State reputation some years ago as a lecturer for the Keeley Institute, at Dwight, Illinois.

He was a man of strong intellect, wide information and possessed a most retentive memory. He was a fluent conversationalist and a close student of the world's progress. For many years he taught school and stood high as a teacher. He was under all circumstances a true and loyal Democrat.

Col. Embry was a widower and leaves two children, and other relatives. One of his brothers, Mr. W. E. Embry, lives in Florida, and another, Mr. G. W. Embry, at Howell. The funeral services were held Tuesday and the interment took place at Howell.

Bassett & Co.
WRECKERS OF HIGH PRICES

Watts, Richards & Co.,

Spot Cash Dealers In

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Underwear, Shoes, Etc.

Are Now In Their New Quarters, No.
103 South Main--(House formerly occupied by the Royal Dry Goods Co.)

ELEGANT STOCK OF NEW GOODS.

PUBLIC INVITED TO CALL.

Great Sale Now On.

I have just purchased the entire stock known as Gant & Slayden, at a price that enables me to offer the greatest bargains ever known in this vicinity. To give you an idea—200 yards finest Fancy Silks, worth $1.25 to $2 per yd., for only 50c—50 pair Kid Gloves, worth $1, for only 50c. Many other such bargains. No goods charged at these prices.

T. L. GANT,

(Successor to Gant & Slayden.)

W. G. WHEELER.

W. H. FAXON.

Wheeler & Faxon,

Tobacco Warehousemen, Commission Merchants & Grain Dealers.

Fire Proof Warehouse, COR. RUSSELLVILLE AND B. B. STS.

Hopkinsville, Ky.

Liberal Advance on Consignments. All Tobacco Cents Covered by Insurance.